

LHS DECA Announces 2021-2022 Leadership Team

LHS DECA advisors Jason Joris and Greg Hudspeth would like to congratulate the following LHS students for being named to the 2021-2022 DECA leadership team. This year's DECA leadership team consists of from left to right: Addison Cupka as VP of Membership; Abigail Thomas as LHS DECA Chapter President; Ella Taylor as VP of Marketing; and Ava Lehmkuhler as LHS DECA Chapter Vice-President. The DECA leadership team has put forth several organizational goals to capitalize and build on the successes achieved over the past several years in district, state, and international business competitions.

DECA at Lebanon High School is a student-led business organization sponsored by the LHS business department. LHS DECA's primary focus is providing practical real-world experiences for DECA members related to business and leadership as well as utilizing competition at the district, state, and international levels to prepare DECA members as they become the next leaders in business and of our communities.
